

Abstract of the Invention

The invention provides a method for designing progressive surfaces and 5 lenses produced using image blur to construct a merit function. The shape of a lens surface, or surfaces, is arbitrarily defined and optimized to minimize the image blur based merit function.